

Modern Slavery

Essential HR and Employment Law Training

Introduction

Since the relaunch of the Modern Slavery Act in 2015 more and more of our customers are contacting us with questions on this subject. By attending this module, you will gain a general understanding of the provisions under the Act and be provided with several case studies that will bring the legislation to life. We will perform a risk analysis on your organisation and you will walk away with an action plan to achieve full compliance with the Act.

Course Duration

SSG offer this module as part of a full or half day course.

Who Should Attend

- SME Owners, Directors and Senior Managers
- Team Leaders and Supervisors
- Any employees working in procurement, HR or third party management

Course Programme

The course will be broken down into the following modules:

- What is Modern Slavery?
- Provisions Under the Act
- Risk Analysis and Action Plan

On completion of the course delegates will be able to:

- Appreciate the background and issues associated with modern slavery
- Understand their legislative obligations
- Identify gaps in their current policy framework

Certification and Assessment

Attendance certificates will be issued after course completion and are valid for three years. It is recommended that certification is renewed every three years to ensure that those persons responsible are kept up to date with best practices.

Suggested Follow on and Complementary Courses

This module can be combined with other subjects for a half or full day course. Please contact our Customer Service Team for more information.
